

HIMALAYAS TO BURRUM

Special Event

An intimate evening with Khandro Thrinlay Chodon

Born in the high Himalayas into a renowned family of yogic lay meditators, Khandro-la has so many experiences so different in view and understanding to our western way. Educated in India, married to the highest spiritual leader of Bhutan, holder of an ancient meditation lineage, humanitarian work, pilgrimages - this woman of wisdom has watched the passing of a very special era in the Himalayas. She keeps alive the ancient wisdoms and brings their joy and clarity into a modern world.

We invite you!

to share an intimate early evening with Khandro Rinpoche - hear about of her unique childhood upbringing, her experiences East and West, her Himalayan perspective. An interesting cultural exchange with beautiful slides, insights and food!

13 October 2017, 5-8pm

home of Gabriel Ruhland, 15 Travis Rd, Burrum Heads

$18 RSVP 0421 859514

All proceeds go to Khachodling's Himalayan Education and Culture Fund (tax deductible on request)