KHANDRO THRINLAY CHODON

Sydney Visit 30 August – 16 September 2014

Khandro Thrinlay Chodon is a lay female Buddhist practitioner and teacher who was born in the Indian Himalayas to a family of great Tibetan yogis. Khandro Rinpoche began her spiritual training as a small child and has studied both Eastern and Western approaches to spiritual psychology. She is devoted to bringing the wisdom of her ancient tradition alive in our modern world.

Khandro Rinpoche's life's work and vision "Khachodling" engages in spiritual and humanitarian projects in the remote Indian Himalayas. Khachodling translates as a place where the heart essence of wisdom, known as the feminine principle in Buddhism, is nourished and respected.

Khandro Rinpoche is the embodiment of warmth and humanness and her teachings skillfully inspire us to deepen our awareness and courageously expand into the path of wisdom, joy and compassion.

Finding Life Through Loss - 1 Day Teaching

Date: Sunday, 7th September, 2014

As painful as loss can be, losing loved ones, friends, dreams and all that we become attached to, such losses can be a portal into the truth of impermanence. Grief breaks us open into life. Death can be a teacher and with practice can deepen our awareness, wisdom and appreciation of life's treasures and help us courageously face any challenges and difficulties that arise.

Candlelight and Flower Ceremony

Saturday evening 13th September 2014

Time: 6.00pm to 7.30pm

Venue: Buddhist Library and Meditation Centre, 90-92 Church Street, Camperdown 2050

This healing practice from the Vajrayana Buddhist tradition, involves preparing a beautiful mandala of flowers and candles. Participants are invited to invoke the deceased and those in their lives who are going through difficulties, with the intent that all suffering, pain, guilt and regrets transform into wisdom and compassion.

This unique and flowing ceremony has been inspired from the heart of Khandro Rinpoche. It has a special feminine touch, so needed in these material times. Flowers beautifully emanate the natural colours of the mandala and the light illuminates the darkness of ignorance. The ceremony allows participants to deepen and engage in a transformative process. The text for this ceremony has been extracted from the “Shitro Nyedon Nyingpo” (terma of Tertön Jatsön Nyingpo).

On the evening please bring the names and a monetary offering in the name of the deceased and those who have obstacles. These will be sent to Khachodling’s Himalayan yogis and nuns so that they may perform the full 49 day puja on their behalf. It is also possible to make an offering to the teacher for her teachings in this session.

Please arrive 1 hour before the ceremony begins if you want to participate in the making of this mandala.

Cost: Offerings of money and flowers
