

This unique and flowing ceremony has been inspired from the heart of Khandro Rinpoche – it has a special feminine touch so much needed in these material times. Flowers beautifully emanate the natural colours of the mandala whilst light illuminates the darkness of ignorance. The ceremony allows participants to deepen and engage in a transformative process.

On the evening please bring the names and a monetary offering in the name of the deceased and those whom have obstacles. These will be sent to Khachodling's Himalayan yogis and nuns so that they may perform the full 49 day puja on their behalf. It is also possible to make an offering to the teacher for her teachings in this session.

A JOURNEY INTO THE HEART – WEEKEND RETREAT WITH KHANDRO RINPOCHE

This Retreat is an opportunity to take a break from our busy lives to develop the full potential of our mind in a relaxing and tranquil setting. The timeless teachings of the Buddha, along with meditation practices will be used to take us on a journey into the heart. The emphasis will be on creating a community of co-exploration, based on wisdom and compassion, whilst honoring where we are in our journey. This is not a conventional retreat, nor is it a psychotherapy workshop – it is an opportunity to explore together in a safe and supportive atmosphere what really matters. How can we recognize peace and develop compassion in our busy lives and respond rather than react to the demands made of us? The retreat will focus on using silent meditation as a centering practice along with analytical meditation. Most of the retreat will be held in noble silence and is open for beginners as well as experienced meditators. Noble Silence means no talking or non-verbal communication of any kind, except of course in emergencies or discussion times. The purpose of Noble Silence is to allow the mind to let go of outer distractions and to focus as much as possible on the inner world. The retreat charge will include accommodation and food and any surplus will be donated to Khachodling Projects in the Indian Himalayas

Cost: $139

KHANDRO RINPOCHE PERTH TEACHINGS 2014

Khandro Thrinlay Chodon is a lay female Buddhist practitioner and spiritual teacher. Born in the Indian Himalayas to a family of renowned Tibetan yogis of the Drukpa tradition, Khandro Rinpoche began her spiritual training as a small child and has studied both Eastern and Western approaches to spiritual psychology. She is devoted to bringing alive the wisdom of her ancient tradition into our modern world and has, with the encouragement of many Vajrayana Buddhist masters, since 2003 been teaching in the West. She focuses on spirituality in daily life. Khandro Rinpoche is the embodiment of warmth and humanness and her teachings skilfully inspire us to deepen our awareness and courageously expand into the path of wisdom, joy and compassion. Khandro Rinpoche's life work and vision "Khachodling" engages in spiritual and humanitarian projects in the remote Indian Himalayas. Khachodling translates as a place where the heart essence of wisdom, known as the feminine principle in Buddhism, is nourished and respected.

The Feminine Principle - Action from the Heart

The feminine principle can be viewed at different levels in accordance with an individual's understanding or perspective. Some of the ways she has been known is as 'the wise crone', 'the nurturing mother', 'the powerful shakti'. Within the Vajrayana tradition of Buddhism, the feminine principle has a specific meaning, which unveils to us her presence at the heart of everything. She is revered and respected by practitioners as the spacious quality of mind itself, and through deep practice, her truth unfolds unceasingly. Subtle, mystifying, intriguing, nurturing and pervasive, she is actually beyond gender, and is dynamic. Today, this feminine aspect of our being needs to be respected and reactivated by both men and women.

Something has gone wrong here. We have forgotten to recognize the real truth and beauty that lies within ourselves. Why don't we peep and try to catch a glimpse of the treasures...maybe you will fall in love with yourself! Wouldn't that be better than always falling in love with what is out there? Khandro Rinpoche draws us into ourselves in a warm and compassionate manner
